Four $150 scholarships for high school seniors planning to major in journalism at Montana State University have been announced. The Montana State Press Association will sponsor three scholarships and the Montana Broadcasters Association will sponsor a fourth, Dean Nathan B. Blumberg of the MSU School of Journalism said.

The scholarships will be awarded for the 1961-62 school year on the basis of academic achievement and professional promise, the dean said.

Any high school senior planning a career in journalism may apply for a scholarship by sending a letter of application, a high-school transcript and a letter of recommendation to Dean Blumberg at the MSU School of Journalism by June 1.
